Volume VIII.

FRANKFORT, KY., MARCH 14, 1885.

Number 26.

The roller skating rink has been closed for the season.

The pipe laying force commenced putting down the water pipes on the North side Tuesday.

Mr. W. L. Graham is putting up a neat frame cottage on Campbell street, on the lot adjoining his residence.

Dr. U. V. Williams has commenced the erection of a frame residence on Cross street, between Conway and Ewing.

Dr. Geo. M. Reddish has located here for the purpose of practicing his profession. Read his card in another column.

A building boom has set in on the South Side. Three houses are now under way and several more will go up in a short time.

Itch, cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by Hughes & Chiles, Druggist, Frankfort.

Mr. Nat. McDaniel's team attached to a two-horse wagon made things lively yesterday on St. Clair and Main streets by a run-a-way scrape. No damage done.

Deputy United States Marshal Con. McCarty, on yesterday, arrested a negro by the name of Amos Morton for selling liquor without license, and lodged him in jail.

Rev. G. F. Bagby began a protracted meeting at S. C. Bull, agent for Mutual Life, of New York. He can show you policies on lives of men who lived and died here in Frankfort, which paid their heirs over 100 per cent on the money invested.

If you wish to see the results of Life Insurance call on S. C. Bull, agent for Mutual Life, of New York. He can show you policies on lives of men who lived and died here in Frankfort, which paid their heirs over 100 per cent on the money invested.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarty went to Paris Tuesday and arrested Christopher Holloway and Isaac Witzburger, charged with forging money orders on the Post Office at that place. They were held in $1,000 bond and will be tried here in June.

Messrs. John and Gilbert Mastin have opened an agricultural implement and seed store at Williams Bros' old stand, on Ann street, where they propose to keep constantly on hand everything in their line that a farmer or market gardener may want. Being practical farmers themselves, they understand the wants of the farmers in this section, and will always be ready to supply them. They are clever, energetic young men and deserve success. Call and see them when in the city.

"Karl the Peddler."

A treat is in store for our theatre-goers on next Thursday evening, as the famous comedian, Mr. Chas. A. Gardner is to appear on that night at the Opera House in his new comedy of "Karl the Peddler," and the mere announcement of this fact will doubtless suffice to fill the house, as "Karl" is everybody's favorite, and his coming is the signal for mirth and hearty laughter. Mr. Gardner is one of the best of German dialect actors; never exaggerating and making a burlesque of the character he represents, but always true to nature and to art. As a singer of sweet songs who is there to compare with him? None that we know of. His "lullaby" is one of the sweetest songs ever listened to, and Gardner renders it as none else can. The new "Karl" is full of fun, and as the supporting company is a strong one, a most enjoyable entertainment may be anticipated. Reserved seat tickets on sale at Barrett's News Depot.

There will be a meeting of Temperance workers Monday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, at Mr. H. G. Mattern's gallery to appoint delegates to the Convention which meets in Louisville on next Thursday, March 19th.

The police succeeded the first of the week in capturing Lank Patterson, a notorious chicken thief, with stolen chickens in his possession. He has already served a term in the Penitentiary and since his release has often been arrested for stealing chickens and always managed to get off. This time he was fined only five dollars and costs and sent to the work-house to serve it out.

Mr. Gus Macey Hodges, son of Mr. Geo. H. Hodges, formerly of this county, was shot and instantly killed at Encinal, Texas, on Saturday, by a Mexican by the name of Mendiola, while standing upon the platform at the depot at that place. No cause is assigned for the murder. Mr. Hodges was the station agent of the Missouri Pacific Railroad at that place at the time of his death.

A Card.

In my card of last week, referring to X's, letter I said: "If it did not come from some one connected with the Yeoman Office it is very misleading." The Yeoman of last Tuesday, in reply to this charge, said:

"The insinuation of Mr. Church is therefore entirely gratuitous, and without the slightest foundation. No doubt the party who wrote the article to which he responds is interested in the election, and it read very much as if it were the expression of some person friendly to Col. Major, but it did not come from any one connected with the Yeoman, and, as far as we can learn, no partner, editor, or employee of the Yeoman had any knowledge that the article was written or would appear in the Roundabout."

The Editor of the Yeoman then goes on in the same article, and is kind enough to advise me "to be a little more careful in my statements hereafter." It is now my purpose to show him, and the public in general, that my statement was not made recklessly or without good cause. I had good reason to believe when I wrote my card that Squire Pat. McDonald, the manager of the Yeoman, was responsible for the article signed "X," and I have since found out that he was wholly responsible for it. He carried the article in person to the Editor of the Roundabout, and I have excellent reason to believe that every word of it is in his own hand writing. He directed it to be published, and ordered two hundred copies of the paper containing it to be sent to him. Now had not the editor of the Yeoman better be a little more careful in making public statements, "when they operate to the detriment of his personal friends and neighbors?" I did not want a newspaper controversy, but it is due the public that I should show that I had unquestionable authority for my statement. I now wipe my hands of "X."

R. C. CHURCH.

Belle Point

Mr. W. T. Crutcher visited Lexington Monday.

Mr. R. Rogers and family have moved from St. Francis.

Mr. Geo. Shackelford and family have moved from the toll-gate to town.

Miss Mattie Todd, after a protracted visit to relatives in Louisville, is home again.

Messrs. Louis and Sam. Todd went to Louisville this week with their tobacco.

Mr. Wesley Wright, of Nashville, Tenn., visited his old friends here Tuesday.

Mr. Maurice Cadenes, Jr., has returned from an extended trip in Eastern Kentucky.

Mrs. Virginia Hampton is visiting her son, Rev. W. H. Hampton, in Louisville.

Mr. C. L. McKee has filled the cellar under his store with ice. He will start a wagon soon.

Mr. Henry Hodges, of Topeka, Kansas, visited his sister, Mrs. Judge Gaines, this week.

Councilman S. T. Pence has just completed a substantial stone walk in front of his residence.

The new school-house and chapel are progressing slowly, but will surely be completed this summer.

The Council, at its last meeting, reduced the tax on real estate from 30 to 15 cents on the hundred dollars.

Messrs. Jno. Davis and W. Zook have moved with their families to one of Mrs. Fahay's houses near the bridge on Front street.

Mr. W. McKee Hardie returned Wednesday from Lexington, where he had been assisting Mr. S. S. King in the lumber business.

The Champion Saw-mill will start up in a short time. She is now undergoing repairs and when completed will be one of the fastest mills in Frankfort.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Mar. 10, 1885.

Sales past week were the largest of the season, amounting to 3,811 hhds, and it is a little remarkable that under these immense offerings prices have remained very firm on all grades of Barley Tobacco. Never before have we seen such a large per cent. of inferior tobacco on the market. The crop is certainly establishing a reputation as well for its inferior quality as for its immense proportions. The order of the offerings is remarkably good for the time of the year. We see nothing in the future to indicate an advance in prices on Barley tobacco and the very large receipts and sales seem to say that this is the general verdict of the people.

Sales since Jan. 1st, 27,101 hhds.
Sales of crop 1884, to date, 29,866 hhds.
Sales to-day at auction amounted to 371 hhds, being the largest sales in one day in this market or any other.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 14, 1885.

An effort is being made to raise funds to establish a public library in this city. One public spirited citizen has already offered to donate the ground for the erection of the necessary building. Let the work be pushed until a sufficient fund is raised to make it a certainty. With as many citizens in good circumstances as we have, there certainly ought to be no trouble in securing the necessary subscriptions.

Of all the miserable shows which have ever struck this city the one given at the Opera House Wednesday evening by the "California Quartet Specialty and Burlesque Opera Company" was just about the worst. It was equal to the one Mark Twain tells about in the adventures of Huckleberry Finn, which was given by the two tramps at Brickville. There was but a small audience present, but they were the worst sold people we have ever seen, and all went away feeling that the entire company should be tarred and feathered and fired out of town.

The contract for the wood framing, galvanized iron work and roof covering of the Government Building in this city was let to Mr. John Mitchell, of Louisville, for $7,000, his being the lowest bid. The following are the bids received: John Mitchell, $7,010 if slate is used; same if metal shingles. Justin McCarthy, $7,817 if slate; $7,917 if metal. Mike Buckley, $7,980 if slate; $7,980 if metal. J. W. Angus, $8,300 if slate. E. R. Longhead & Co., $8,900 if slate; $9,065 if metal. Italy & Tobin, $10,385 if slate; $9,975 and $10,080 if metal. Frank Baldwin, $10,836 if slate; same if metal.

Fielding Ward, colored, who is charged with being one of the gang who have been stealing whisky from the warehouse of Messrs. J. & J. M. Saffell, and who "skipped the town" when the others were arrested last week, was arrested in Louisville Sunday, and Deputy United States Marshal Con. McCarthy went down that afternoon, brought him up and lodged him in jail. He had an examining trial Wednesday morning before U. S. Commissioner Thos. B. Ford and was held over to the June term of the Federal Court in the sum of $800, in default of which he was returned to jail.

During the performance of the Planter's Wife, at the Opera House Tuesday night, the boys around the peanut wagon in the street began to shout when some one in the gallery cried fire, and in an instant the audience were upon their feet and ready for a rush to the door. Mr. Harry Lucy, who was playing the part of Col. Albert Graham, was on the stage at the time, and coolly stepping to the footlights he assured the audience there was no fire in the house and no danger. At the same time Messrs. A. C. Wood, John W. Rodman and others cried out to the people to sit down, and after a minute or two succeeded in reassuring them and preventing a stampede.

Monday morning a young man by the name of Thomas Arvin, a younger brother, and a young man by the name of Branson, all of whom live in the lower edge of the city, started out hunting, all being armed with double-barreled shot-guns. When they had arrived on Mr. S. M. Noel's place, about a mile below the city, they came upon a flock of red-winged black birds and began shooting at them. After each had fired one shot Arvin suggested that they load up, which he proceeded to do, when the barrel of his gun which was still loaded was accidentally discharged, the charge entering his body near the centre of the chest, and killing him instantly. The unfortunate young man was twenty-one years of age, and a son of Mr. Wm. Arvin, sawyer on Capt. S. V. Pence's saw-mill boat.

The remains were brought to the city, where an inquest was held by Coroner McEwan, and a verdict returned of death by accidental shooting.

Rev. James Fall will fill the pulpit at the Christian Church to-morrow morning. Rev. George Darsie being absent in Louisville, conducting a meeting.

The ladies of the Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church will give an oyster supper at the residence of Mr. C. T. Freeman on Wednesday evening, March 18th, from 6 to 12 o'clock P. M., for the benefit of the students' fund. All are cordially invited.

The trade in oranges, lemons, bananas and peanuts has been lively in this city the past week. A party came up from Louisville and began selling them from a wagon on the street at very low prices, and after submitting it for a day or two our local dealers got out wagons also, and the above tropical fruits were soon much cheaper than home grown apples.

Some time in January the safe of Messrs. Alstrom & Co. was robbed of about one hundred dollars. Mr. A. kept the matter very quiet and placed the robbery in the hands of Mr. L. L. Conway to ferret out. After working at it for a few days he soon spotted his man, a tailor by the name of Stewart, who had been an employe of the house and had left for parts unknown. On Tuesday he located him in West Virginia, had him arrested, and a requisition was obtained from the Governor for him and forwarded to that State.

The steamer Hornet, which was sunk just below Lock No. 1 in February, has been undergoing repairs at Madison, Indiana, for some time and is expected up the river in a few days. Capt. Sam. Sanders having resigned the position of captain of her, a strong petition has been gotten up among the business men of this city requesting the Kentucky River Navigation Company to appoint Mr. H. B. Cammack, of this city, to the vacancy. No one could be selected who is more popular in this city or has more friends along the river. Having had considerable experience on the river he will make a good officer, and the Company will never regret the appointment.

MARRIED.

At the residence of Dr. W. C. West, Macomb street, Tuesday P. M., March 10, 1885, by Rev. S. W. Pratt, Mr. William D. Patton, of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Virginia C. Waggoner, of Frankfort, Ky. This occasion was a very delightful one. Mrs. West entertained her friends in her well known manner. The bride, a daughter of Mr. C. H. R. of Chicago and is a young man of most agreeable manners and of the best character. The bride was dressed in rich French gray silk, trimmed with brocade of the same color, and with a cluster of ten roses at the throat and waist. She received many and valuable presents from friends in Kentucky, Missouri, Virginia, Philadelphia and this city. The wedding party left for Detroit on the evening train. Their future residence is to be at Downer's Grove, a suburb of Chicago, Ill.—Monroe (Mick) Commercial.

In Clinton county, Missouri, on Tuesday, March 10th, 1885, Mr. Lewis HOCKENBERRY, of Missouri, and Miss SALLIE E. HOCKENBERRY, of this county.

IN MEMORIAM.

William F. Rogers, the subject of this sketch, was born Nov. 16th, 1834, and fell tranquilly to rest Feb. 10th, 1885. For ten years an invalid, yet a patient sufferer, never murmuring at the will of his Master. He was the embodiment of integrity and sincerity, and in the latter years of his life were exemplified the noble virtues of a Christian character. A consistent Christian in more and more devoted North Benson Church, a worthy officer, member and counselor. We commend the grief-stricken family to that Fountain filled with blood. Drawn from Immanuel's veins. As a source of solace and comfort, remembering that all things work together for good to them that love God, we tender our sympathies. o o o

Mr. John Meagher purchased on Thursday the Rodman & Sneed saw and planing mills for $7,000.

A new plate glass front has been placed in the tailoring establishment of Messrs. A. G. Alstrom & Co.

It is now feared by some of our sawmill men that there will not be water sufficient in the river during the spring to bring down logs enough to run them during the summer.

Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of this city, conducted a meeting at the Presbyterian Church in Lawrenceburg on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Lyon, of that place, filling his pulpit here on Sunday.

Mr. J. W. Kirk has purchased of Mr. H. R. Williams a lot on the corner of Cross and Logan streets, part of the old Sayre spring lot, 100 by 100 feet, for $600. He will put up a neat cottage residence upon it at once.

The San Francisco Quartet and Burlesque Opera Company won golden opinions in this city last night. "Yoman of Thursday."

Ye gods! Who from? Certainly not from the audience before whom they appeared at the Opera House.

Mr. G. T. Ragan, of Alton, Anderson county, and Miss Florence Collins, of this county, sister of ex-sheriff W. L. Collins, were married at the Christian Church in Graceland on Wednesday afternoon, the 11th inst., at 8:15 o'clock.

The residence of Mr. Thomas D. Kester, near Toga, in this county, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning, about three o'clock. The house and most of the contents were entirely consumed. The loss is about $2,500 with insurance of $1,200 on the house and $500 on the furniture in the Phoenix of Brooklyn.

Drs. Gratigny and Norris, of Cincinnati, Ohio, specialists in the treatment of cancers, tumors, nasal catarrh, and pulmonary diseases, will be at the Capital Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday, March 18th and 19th, for the reception and treatment of patients.

Mr. J. J. Peterson has accepted the agency in this city for the San Francisco Tea and Coffee Company, and will call on our citizens in a few days with a full line of samples. Read his advertisement.

Karl the Peddler.

At the Opera House next Thursday night, March 19th, Warren, Ohio Journal says of the company:

Charles A. Gardener, the well-known German dialect comedian, has lost none of his power in entertaining an audience, as was shown last night in his impersonation of "Karl the Peddler." His sparkling eyes, pleasant, cheery face, carries happiness into an audience, and makes the moments pass merrily. Mr. Gardener has a voice full of melody, and his responses to the encores last night were all of a pleasing character. He is fortunate in having an excellent supporting company, and the bill presented forms a most pleasing entertainment.

Why do not the candidates for the Legislature let the people know how they stand on the school question. Stop your wrangling about personal matters and talk about something that will benefit the people. Mr. A. G. Brawner, candidate for the Senate, is the only one that we have heard speak his mind on the school system, and in the main is all right on that all-important subject, and if for nothing else should be supported by all the friends of education.

The old saying "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good" has verified itself once more. Mr. Davis, several weeks ago, was arrested and confined in jail on a charge of house burning. At the same time a man by the name of Lee Patrick was confined as a "poor shiner." Mr. Davis' family visited him often, and his daughter, Miss Mary Jane and Mr. Patrick became acquainted. Cupid soon had them entangled in his meshes, and the result was that on Friday, the 6th (Mr. P. having been released), they were married in the Court House before a large and enthusiastic audience, the ceremony being performed by Judge R. A. Thompson, in his usual solemn and impressive style. Messrs. Lewis Cox and John Tobin acted as ushers. The happy couple left on the 11 A. M. train for their future home in Knott county, accompanied by the bride's brother, William.

THE NEW JAIL.

Answer to Mr. Crutcher's Card.

Editor Roundabout:
In answer to Mr. Crutcher's card, which appeared in your issue of last Saturday, allow me to say that it is not my purpose to advertise myself as one of the board of magistrates (I have never been a grand juror, nor am I a prospective candidate for the Senate), but simply in defense of my colleagues on the magisterial bench. Mr. Crutcher says:
"The impression seems to have gone abroad among the magistrates of Franklin county, that the action of the grand jury in indicting the members of the 'court of claims demanded of them' is a w. j. l."

Now, such is not the fact. That impression has been upon the minds of every magistrate of this county for the last twenty years. A new jail ought to and should be built. The condition of the present jail is simply a disgrace to the times in which we live. It is impossible to ventilate it from the nature of its situation against the large four-story warehouse. It may have been a "good and sufficient jail" at the time it was built, but owing to the increase of crime, and consequent increase of the number of criminals, the present jail is not large enough to hold comfortably even half of the criminals now confined within its walls. Esquire McDonald and myself from the city have repeatedly urged the necessity of building a new jail, but we have been met with the objection by just such men as Mr. Crutcher, that it would entail too much additional expense on the county, and now that the grand jury has indicted us for not doing it, Mr. Crutcher comes to the front in a card, and endeavors to advise us what to do in the premises. It is to be presumed that at least some, if not all the magistrates, are men of at least common sense, and will do what they think is their duty, and not make an attempt to apologize for it afterwards through a published card. Our opinion of the whole matter is that Mr. C. has a political ax to grind, and having been one of the sixteen who caused the additional tax of ten cents upon the people to be made, attempts to get out of it by saying that it is a "good and sufficient jail," but it only wants ventilation and sewerage. No, Mr. Crutcher, you have indicted us, and done your duty; stand to it like a man, and don't, like the fox in the well, attempt to drag us in with you so that you can get out of the scrape on your billly goat horns. Very respectfully,

JOHN W. BOHANNAN,
One of the board of Magistrates.

Skin Diseases.

I have a little daughter seven years old, who for the last four years has been afflicted with a peculiar skin eruption on the face and one hand. I have tried seven or eight physicians, among them the best in California and in this province, but to no purpose. The child kept growing worse. Fortunately, I saw a statement in a St. Paul, Minn., paper, of a cure of a disease similar to that of my child. It was effected by Swift's Specific. I secured six bottles and commenced giving it to my little girl. In less than one week this terrible disease, which had baffled all the known remedies within reach, began to disappear. She has been taking it three months—perfectly well, and her skin as clear as wax.

What a Minister Says.

Extreme weakness and general debility, produced by exposure and overwork attendant upon my duties, were gradually developing into an utter prostration of my system. Adopting the suggestion of intimate friends, who had experienced relief in similar cases by taking Swift's Specific, I now find myself restored to a perfect condition of health and strength. Accept my fervent wishes for your continued success in the development of your successful method for relieving those who suffer.
